Pacemaker Homework

1. A VAT pacemaker paces the ventricle, senses in the atrium, and is triggered by an electrical event in the atrium. Therefore, it would be appropriate for a disease that blocked normal electrical connection between the atria and ventricle, such as third degree AV block. Second degree might be better solved with a VDT since some beats have normal conduction.